increase the allocation and consequently it was increased.

(b) and (c) In order to meet the increased demand during the summer months, the share from "Unallocated Quota" was increased from 11% to 25% with effect from 1st April, 2001. An additional 100 MW of surplus power from Eastern Region was made available with effect from 12th June, 2001.

During the peak hours the availability position improved as a result of (i) 100 MW additional allocation from Central generating stations; and (ii) 110 MW allocation from Rajasthan Atomic Power Plant (Unit No. 4).

The Delhi Vidyut Board also entered into an agreement with Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board (HPSEB) and Chhattisgarh State Electricity Board for supply of additional power. Under the agreements 140 to 180 MW from HPSEB will be available upto 30.9.2001; and 200 MW during peak hours and 100 MW during off-peak hours will be supplied by Chhattisgarh State Electricity Board.

DVB has also executed an agreement with Power Trading Corporation for the supply of 70 MW from Malana Hydro-electric Project in Himachal Pradesh for a period of one year effective from 1.7.2001.

Ceasefire in Nagaland

*46. SHRI NILOTPAL BASU:
SHRI DRUPAD BORGOHAIN:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFARIS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the ceasefire accord with some Naga extremist outfits has been extended by Government and the territorial limits of the accord has been expanded to cover the whole of North-East;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the observation of Government on the developments arising thereof;

(c) whether consultations were held by Government with the concerned State Governments before the above mentioned step was taken and if so, the details thereof; and

(d) whether the actions of Government are in keeping with cooperative federalism?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFARIS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) and (b) The ceasefire with NSCN(IM) has been extended for one year, without territorial limits, beyond 31st July, 2001. This decision evoked a sharp reaction in Manipur, accompanied by violence and arson. The elected representatives from Manipur met the Prime Minister on 24th June and 8th July, 2001 to apprise him about the sentiments of the people of that State. As a result, the Government has decided to review the ceasefire agreement including the words "without territorial limits".

(c) and (d) Two rounds of consultations were held with concerned Chief Ministers of North Eastern States. The first meeting with CMs of Assam, Manipur, Arunachal Pradesh and Meghalaya was held on 28th September, 2000. In the second round, separate meetings were held with CMs of Assam, Manipur and Arunchal Pradesh on 2nd March, 2001.

Adopt a Monument Scheme
